

St. Luke School of the Seventy AUDIO COURSES FOR CREDIT

You can borrow any of these for TWO MONTHS ONLY. See Else Tennesen to borrow these. Each course is worth 10 credits upon completion.

To receive credit, you must complete and turn in

- a. The “Questions to Consider” after each chapter.
- b. A copy of the “Audio Course Worksheet” downloadable from www.70school.blogspot.com (see left column of the web site).

These courses cover varied topics that will help us place the development of the Christian faith and the Orthodox Church in history.

AVAILABLE COURSES

Alexander the Great and the Hellenistic Age, Part 1

By The Teaching Company, Teacher: Prof. Jeremy McInerney, U. Penn.

12 lectures on CD. This series of lectures examines a crucial but often neglected period in the history of the ancient world, the age ushered in by the extraordinary conquests of Alexander the Great. Covers Alexander’s time and unfolding of his kingdom during his life and after his death.

Alexander the Great and the Hellenistic Age, Part 2

By The Teaching Company, Teacher: Prof. Jeremy McInerney, U. Penn.

12 lectures on CD. Takes up where part 1 ends, looking at the fine arts, culture, politics and other topics covering the Hellenistic age after Alexander’s death.

Ancient Greek Civilization, Part 1

By The Teaching Company, Teacher: Prof. Jeremy McInerney, U. Penn.

12 lectures on CD. Covers: A discussion of ancient history including Greece and the Western World, Minoan Crete, Schliemann and Mycenae, Greek Heroes, trade and colonization, Delphi and Olympia, Sparta, politics, democracy, Persia.

Ancient Greek Civilization, Part 2

By The Teaching Company, Teacher: Prof. Jeremy McInerney, U. Penn.

12 lectures on CD. Covers: Takes up where part 1 ends. Discusses the Persian wars, the Athenian empire, democracy, religion, theatre and art, sex and gender, the Peloponnesian war, Socrates, slavery, Athens in decline, Philip, Alexander, Greece in transition.

Great Ancient Civilizations of Asia Minor, Part 1

By The Teaching Company, Teacher: Prof. Kenneth W. Harl, Tulane U.

12 lectures on CD. Covers: Anatolia (Turkey), Roman Asia Minor, Byzantine Civilization, Islamic Turkey.

Great Ancient Civilizations of Asia Minor, Part 2

By The Teaching Company, Teacher: Prof. Kenneth W. Harl, Tulane U.

12 lectures on CD. Covers: Takes up where part 1 ends. Discusses Hellenization of Asia Minor, Rome and Roman culture, Jews and early Christians, Byzantium, Constantinople, Crusades, Muslim transformation, Ottoman Empire.

Tool of Thinking: Understanding the World through Experience and Reason, Part 1

By The Teaching Company, Teacher: Prof. James Hall, U. Richmond

12 lectures on CD. The purpose of this course is to trace out in a semi-historical way how modern rational empiricism has arrived at its tool kit for thinking. This is how the Western World thinks. Covers such topics as Platonic intuition, Memory, Reason, Experience, Observation, Ancient Logic in modern dress, inferences, and more.

Tool of Thinking: Understanding the World through Experience and Reason, Part 2

By The Teaching Company, Teacher: Prof. James Hall, U. Richmond

12 lectures on CD. Takes up where part 1 left off. Covers such topics as Induction, Scientific Revolution, Hypotheses, Empiricism, Modern Logic, Postmodernism and more.

The World Of Byzantium, Part 1

By The Teaching Company, Teacher: Prof. Kenneth W. Harl, Tulane U.

12 lectures on CD. Covers: Constantine, Imperial Rome, Rise of Christianity, Imperial Church, Ascetics and Monks, Justinian, and more.

The World Of Byzantium, Part 2

By The Teaching Company, Teacher: Prof. Kenneth W. Harl, Tulane U.

12 lectures on CD. Takes up where part 1 left off. Covers: Heraclius, Dark Age, Iconoclasts, Macedonian emperors, Basil II, Alexius I, Comnenian Emperors, Imperial Exile, Byzantine Letters, Fall of Constantinople and more.