

Have you read "The Screwtape Letters" by C. S. Lewis?
Do you ever wonder what happened afterwards?
Now you can find out!

Join us as we read and discuss the book
"The Wormwood File: E-mail from Hell"
by Orthodox writer, Jim Forest

About the Book: Screwtape's demon nephew Wormwood corresponds via e-mail with his charge, Greasebeak, on relevant, up-to-date temptations, new age dangers, and demonic advice for clients.

What People are Saying: "The Wormwood File is a heavenly work...Read now, laugh now, but also repent now," says one reviewer.

If you want to know how the evil one is trying to get a foothold in your world, and how to fight back, join our Young Adult Class at St. Luke the Evangelist Orthodox Church as we read, study and discuss this book. While the book is a work of fiction, the spiritual advice is not. C. S. Lewis fans are also welcome! Join us; books are FREE!

Where:

St. Luke the Evangelist Orthodox Church
9300 W. 107th Street, Palos Hills, IL 60465

When:

Every Sunday after the Divine Liturgy, which begins at 9:30 a.m.

For more info:

Fr. Andrew Harrison, frandrew@stlukeorthodox.com